ESTONIAN PURCHASING AND SUPPLY
CHAIN MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION

BUSINESS CONFERENCE

PROLOG Business Conference, organised by the Estonian Supply Chain Association PROLOG, brings together almost 200 corporate and supply chain managers. Leading international and Estonian professionals will speak about future technologies that are shaping supply chains and share business experience stories that have helped to unleash new opportunities in supply chains for increasing competitiveness.

93%

of the participants said the conference met their expectations

- We introduced Hyperloop, the transport mode of the future, and brought Alan James, Vice President of Hyperloop One, to Estonia for his first presentation. After the event, work has started in planning the first Hyperloop stations in Estonia and this new mode of transport is being taken into account at the national level.
- The conference brought to Estonia the best knowhow from around the world, as two-thirds of the speakers at the event had international experience
- The topics discussed at the conference were covered by Estonia's largest online media channels and television stations

FEEDBACK FROM SPEAKERS

"It was a great honor and pleasure to be a part of the Prolog Conference in 2017. The conference was very well organized and attended by some of the brightest and most passionate business leaders of Estonia and beyond. I gained considerable value from being both a speaker and a delegate and I would strongly recommend that professionals in Supply Chain and Operations attend future conferences. I certainly will attend again if invited."

› Joseph F Paris Jr, Founder of the Operational Excellence Society.

"Thanks, pleasure was all on my side, very impressed about the level of the conference."

› Søren Vammen, CEO of Kairos
Commodities and Danish Supply Chain Management Association

"I was delighted to be invited to speak at the 2017 Estonian Purchasing and Supply Chain Management Association Conference in Tallinn. It was a very well attended event in a great location and all speaker arrangements worked really well."

› Alan James, Vice President - Worldwide Business Development, Hyperloop One

"The conference program was great with many international performers. Among the participants were many opinion leaders, who were great to see and listen."

› Karli Lambot, Logistics entrepreneur

"The conference program was well-structured - began with a vision and went on to practical, ending with real experiences and stories. It was a fascinating conference day."

› Raivo Vare, Logistics expert
